

The CRC goal is to better the customer experience by implementing:

No Lines

Personal Greeting

Electronic Check-In

Expedited Processes for Simple Transactions

Cross-Service Coordination

Access to Partner Agencies

Access to Child Care while Receiving Services

About Us

Community Resource Centers are part of a core concept of Bringing Mecklenburg County to You. BMC2U provides community centric service locations directly targeting the needs of individual communities and populations.

Dena Diorio, County Manager
Anthony Trotman, Assistant County Manager

Dept. of Community Resources
Yulonda D. Griffin, Director
(980) 314-6247

YulondaD.Griffin@MecklenburgCountyNC.gov

The Valerie Woodard Center
3205 Freedom Drive, Suite 1000, Bldg. A
Charlotte, NC 28208
(980) 314-8400
Hours: 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Learn more at www.MeckNC.gov

CONSOLIDATED
HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES

COMMUNITY
RESOURCE
CENTERS

"Community is Everything"

Facility Features

Open Air Concept

Friendly Environment

Spacious Waiting Areas

Touch Screen Kiosk

Children's Play Area

Communication Monitors

Community Meeting Room

Healthy Vending Machines

Enhanced Security

One Stop Service

Child Support Enforcement

Veterans Services

Dept. Social Services

Emergency Community Services

Food & Nutrition

Medicaid

Work First

Public Health

Care Coordination for Children

(CC4C)

WIC (Women, Infants & Children)

Services

Pregnancy Care Management

Immunization Services

On Site Community Resources & Partners

Novant Health: has Care Connections Specialist and Community Health Workers who support well-being through scheduling doctor appointments, completing biometric screenings, and through coordination of referrals for food, housing, counseling, medications and more...

Charlotte Works: provides opportunities that prepare people for education and available careers by connecting businesses to skilled workers.

To Strengthen Individuals and Families

Ensure the basic need of individuals and families are met and they have the resources to achieve greater economic independence and thrive

Promote Health & Wellness

Improve individual and family wellness, and support physical, mental, and emotional health through education and practice.

Build Community

Cultivate opportunities for individuals, families, and communities to connect and partner with essential services, advancing a safe and high quality of life.

Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy in partnership with Legal Aid of North Carolina works to ensure that children and families, immigrants, people with disabilities, seniors and veterans have access to legal representation to meet basic human needs of safety, security and stability.

Meck-Pre-K assist with free Pre-K enrollment for eligible Mecklenburg County 4-year-olds

Central Piedmont Community College support the academic ambitions of those seeking to further their education through assistance with the enrollment process, advise on study programs and more....

CIS is the nation's leading dropout prevention organization committed to helping students PK-12 achieve success through connections with resources and relationships they need for success.